

Three markets, one apparatus

What has been delivered and how firmly it stands, what each market has received, how a recording becomes something a client can rely on, what is ahead and dated, and who owns which part.

30

recorded conversations

5,011

quotable turns on the register

390

claims with a verdict

236

quotes on a client surface

Three markets, and how firmly each one stands

What has actually reached each market

Where every deliverable stands, rung by rung

RUNG 0 • Evidence and Sources

Evidence & Claims Register		90%	continuous
Friction registers		85%	Aug 7 assessment
Pillar-Proof Matrix		60%	Aug 11-14 review

RUNG 1 • Story Spines

Story Inventory & Champion Map v0		70%	Aug 7 + rolling
8–12 story/champion profiles		5%	Aug 25 (Ham) / Sept 28...

RUNG 2 • Market reports

CB Impact Report (internal v0)		40%	Aug 7 assessment
Hamina Impact Report (internal v0)		55%	Aug 25 v1 / Sept 9
Pryor Impact Report (INTERNAL-ONLY v0)		35%	Aug 7 (findings only)

RUNG 3 • Cross-Market Synthesis

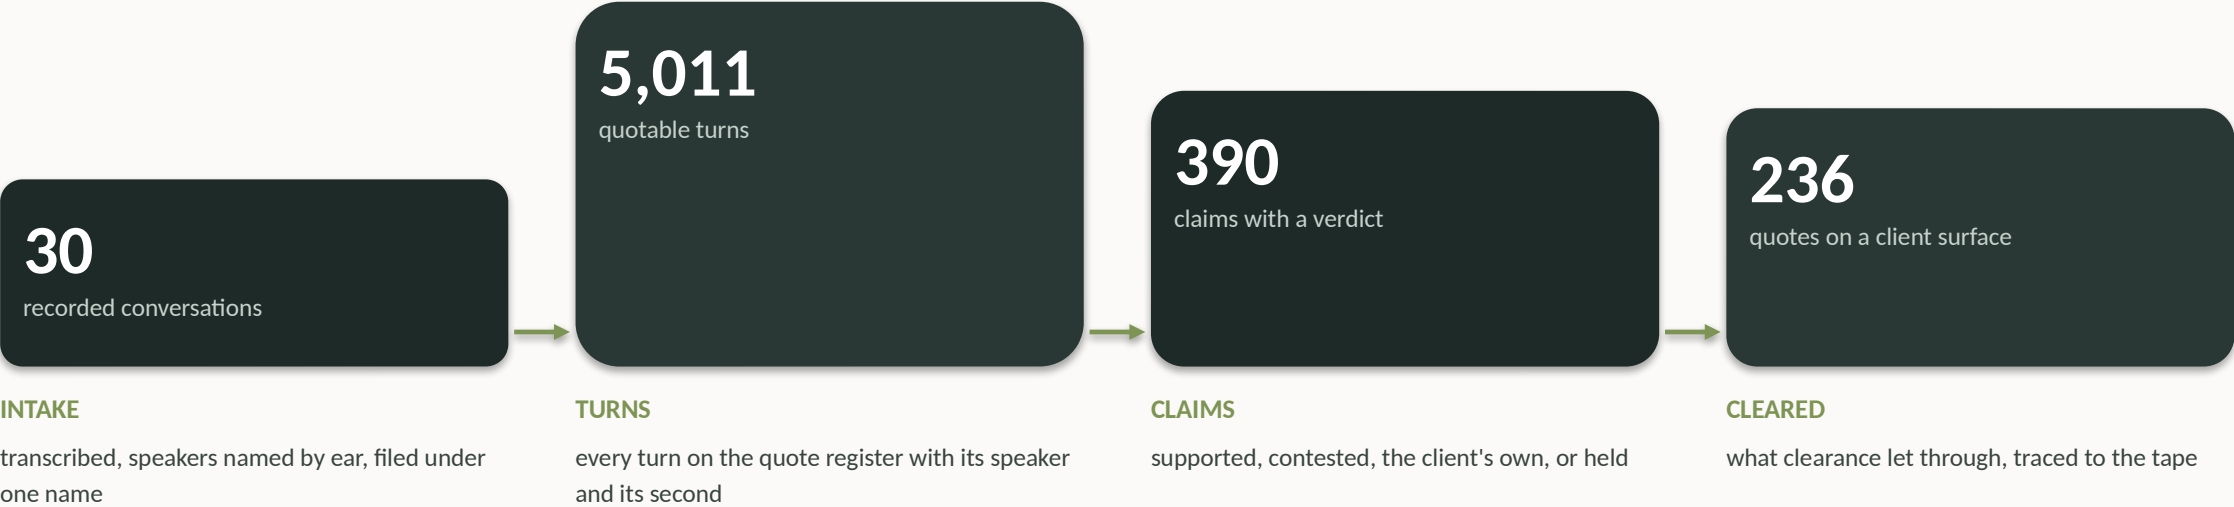

Master Synthesis Report (v0 shell)		30%	Aug 11-14 / early Oct
------------------------------------	------------------------	-----	-----------------------

RUNG 4 • What [the client] receives

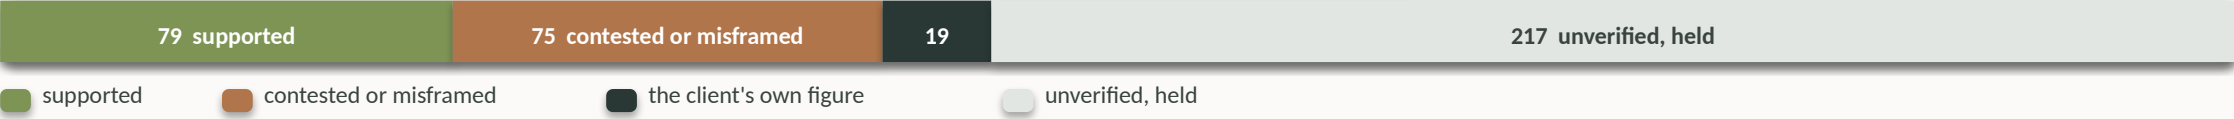

Executive Briefing (Kim)		40%	Aug 7 / early Oct
Storytelling Toolkit (Jules)		10%	early Oct
Video suite (Juno Collective)		10%	Aug 25 (Ham) / Sept 28...
Market Intelligence Playbook / Framework (Phase 4)		40%	Sept 9 v1 / Oct final delivered or close in flight just begun

From a conversation to a client surface

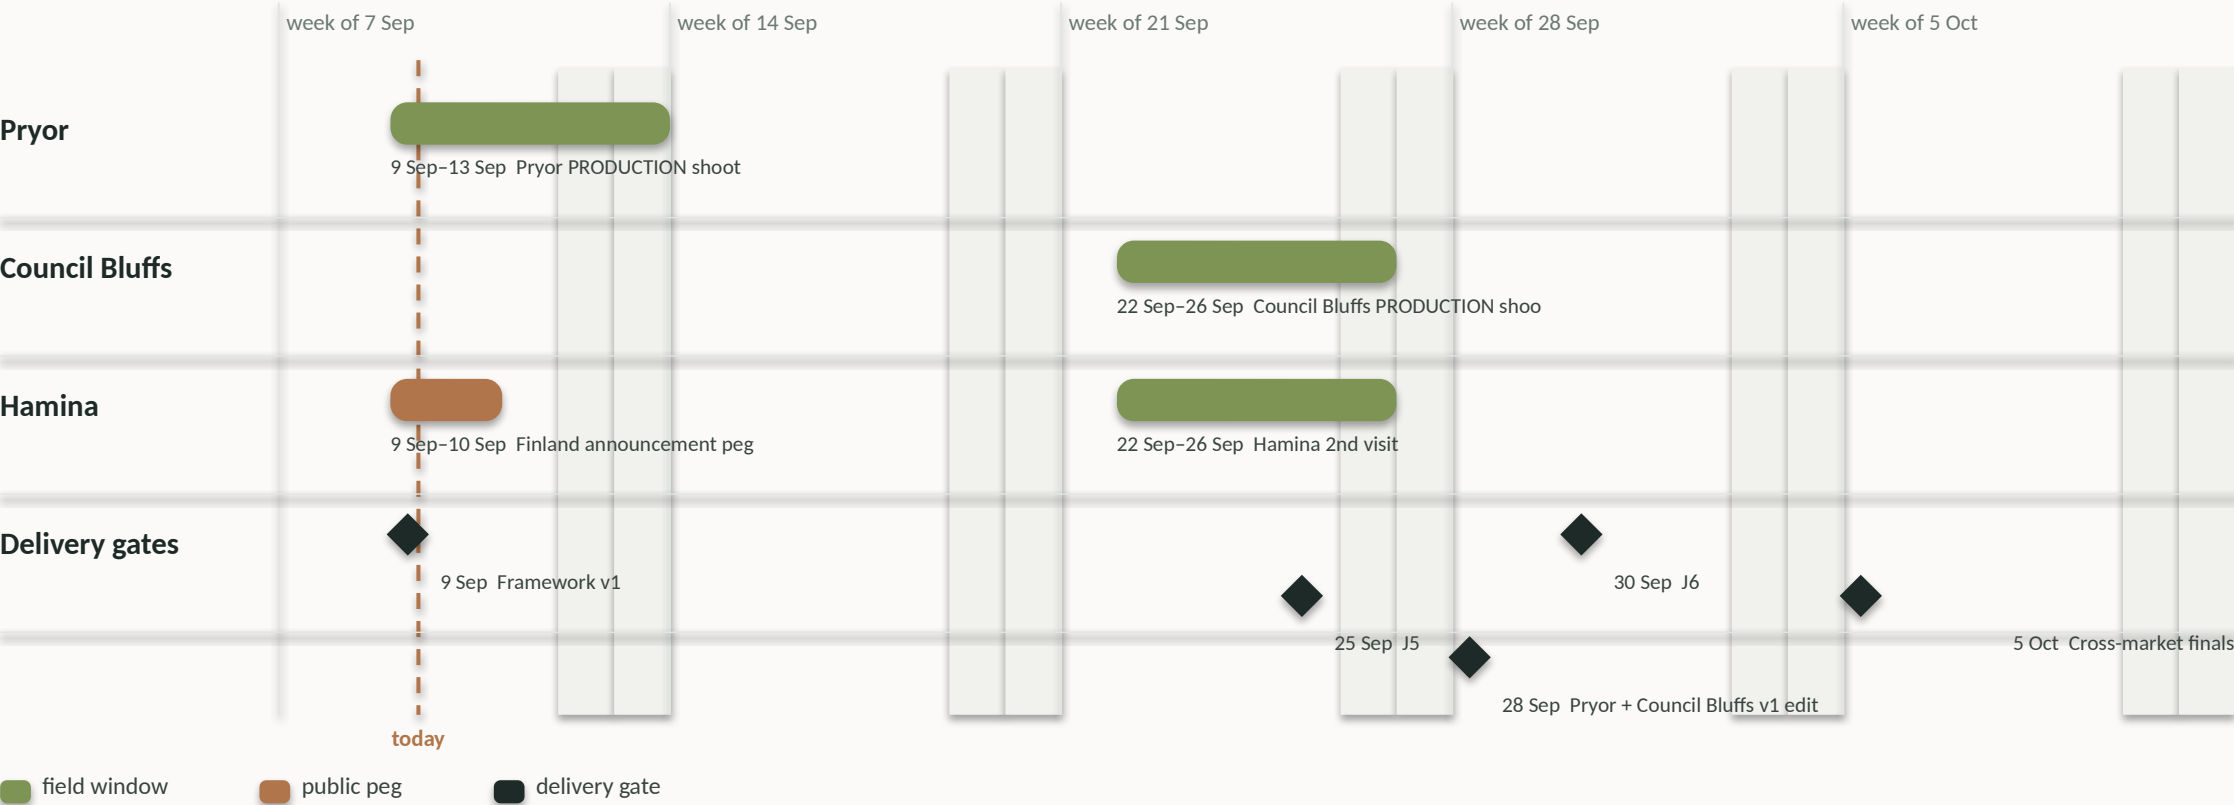

The claims, by verdict, across the three markets

Block height is on a log scale so the first and last stage both read; the split is the whole register • measured at build, 9 September 2026

The next four weeks, on the calendar

Read from the project's dated gates; weekends shaded; the dashed line is the build date • measured at build, 9 September 2026

What changes hands, and when

